CHINLE HIGH SCHOOL

CHINLE, ARIZONA

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"Give a man a fish and he'll eat for a day. Teach him how to fish and he'll eat for a lifetime."

This old Arabian proverb fits into all cultures. Education is a foundation for life. If people just expect hand-outs on a day to day basis, they only live from day to day with no future to plan for. On the other hand, if a person learns a trade or uses his intelligence to make something of himself, he can plan for his future and be proud of who he is. Building on learning experience in and out of school and putting these experiences to use, propels a person to be a symbol of pride to his family, his community, his school, and himself.

Chinle high school is made up of people who teach--faculty and students alike. The faculty learn from the students and in turn the students learn what the faculty teaches. We have a formal and informal on going educational process and each day we learn more from one another. We cannot depend on each other forever since none of us will be here that long. What we learn from each other and pass on to those after us, keeps all of us alive at least in spirit for more time than we spend on Mother Earth. What we learn from each other remains with us as a part of our lives forever. We can be proud of who we are and proud of those who teach us. At Chinle High School we have a "faculty" of over 1,000 people and those people are freshmen, sophmores, juniors, seniors, teachers, aides, substitutes, secretaries, lunch aides, cooks, clerks, janitors, and administrators. When such a group of people can work together and care about each other, we do our teaching well and all our students, young and old alike "will eat for a lifetime." And in such a setting as this, Chinle High School can be spelled P-R-I-D-E.

IN MEMORY

OF. . .

In Memoriam:
To Hal Councilman
who left our midst October 2, 1978.

There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven:

A time for giving birth,

a time for dying;

a time for planting,

a time for uprooting what has been planted.

A time for killing,

a time for healing;

a time for knocking down,

a time for building.

A time for tears,

a time for laughter;

a time for mourning,

a time for dancing.

A time for throwing stones away,

a time for gathering them up;

a time for embracing,

a time to refrain from embracing.

A time for searching,

a time for losing;

a time for keeping,

a time for throwing away.

A time for tearing,

a time for sewing;

a time for keeping silent,

a time for speaking.

A time for loving,

a time for hating;

a time for war,

a time for peace.

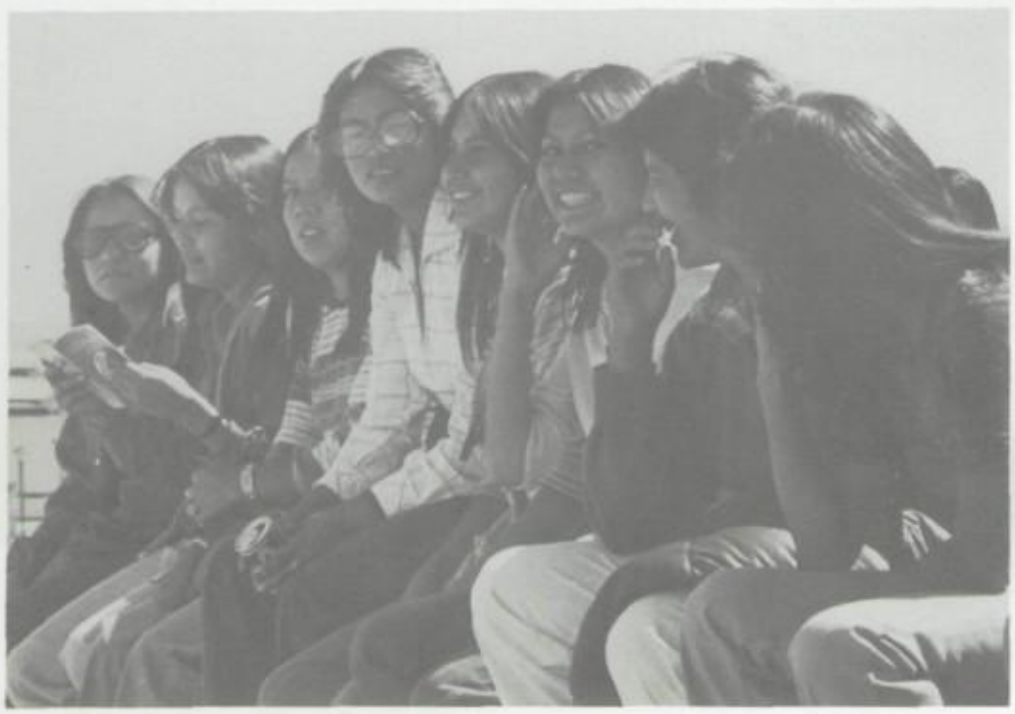
GOOD TIMES

BAD TIMES

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING CAME EARLY

The week of Sept. 18 was declared Homecoming week. Many daily events kept the Wildcat spirit moving on. Seniors won the "Spirit Week" title while the Sophomore class came in second. The Bonfire was a roaring success and the Homecoming Parade was short but wonderful. Mr. George Hartsock was this year's Grand Marshall. He sure looked Grand in his parade vehicle.



Sophomore class float entry received the Grand Champion award and they also came in first in school competition and Seniors trailed while Juniors came in third and Freshman last.

Homecoming Coronation highlighted the evenings football game. Shirley Trujillo and Leroy Tso were crowned Homecoming King and Queen for 1978.

2.

1. To add to the beauty in the parade are Junior class candidates P. Hartsock and M. Griego.
2. Mr. G. Hartsock needs a larger vehicle, don't you agree?
3. A monster arrived in time for a ring size seat with the parade. The float was sponsored by the Senior class.

1.

1. It gets a bit "buzzy" around Homecoming week.

2. Band members put on a lively act during the three-mile route.

3. Freshmen designed this float.

4. Parades are such a grand sight to see and to be in.

2.

4.

1. Senior Candidates P. Ashley and E. Todechine.

2. Homecoming Queen S. Trujillo and King L. Tso.

3. Junior Candidates R. Tah and J. Charley.

4. Junior Candidates P. Hartsock and M. Griego.

INTRAMURAL—VOLLEYBALL

This year we began an intramural sports program. Students formed teams and competed against one another. One of the high-lights was competing against the faculty. The noon time program was an enjoyable success.

CHS GETS EVALUATED

The North Central Evaluation team arrived here Monday, February 26. Their purpose was to check the facilities and learning atmosphere within the classrooms. The team was escorted around the campus by student guides.

They visited each faculty member and discussed how the school might improve.

Monday night a special dinner was prepared for the evaluators and entertainment was provided by the Chinle High School band and choir members.

Canyon,

deep walls, rushing water

Sounds of Echoes

Always yelling back at you.

Echoes from the canyon wall are voices of people calling each other by name.
